Both Ends of Allied Line in Korea Are in Grave Peril Now

WHILE A TANK aims its gun at a menacing hill held by Chinese and North Korean forces, United Nations infantrymen plod toward the enemy lines in another step of the steady UN advance up the Korean peninsula. This attack occurred near Yangzi. Defense department photo.

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Both ends of the United Nations battleline in Korea are now in some peril of enemy envelopment. They may have to withdraw quickly to avoid being trapped.

This came as a result of a mass smash by Chinese and North Korean Reds against South Korean units 50 miles east southeast of Seoul, in the center of the peninsula, which is about 130 miles wide at this point.

The first impetus of their drive carried the Communists five miles through allied positions southwest of Hoengsong.

Early reports indicated the enemy had concentrated six divisions here—some 60,000 men—and others were being rushed to the area in a breakthrough attempt.

No Big Trap Likely

No matter how fast the enemy moves, however, there is little danger of any full American divisions being trapped. Smaller American units fighting with the South Koreans may be surrounded.

The situation is this:

On the western front—the main American forces are massed here. In an attack that began Jan. 25th—a self-acknowledged "limited offensive"—they have driven to the Han River at Seoul, taken Inchon, the capital's port, and seized Kimpo, its chief airfield.

On the central front—here the Reds are trying a "save face" breakthrough that may be a desperate bid to carry out their pledge to throw the allies out of Korea.

On the eastern front—South Korean forces aided by naval gunfire have driven again across the 38th parallel to Yangyang, almost 40 miles north of the sagging allied central front.

What will happen next? These are the possibilities:

1. A counterattack may throw back the enemy and stitch the damaged allied line.
2. The allies may slowly pull back both ends of their line to a defensive position farther south.

3. The Reds may sweep on through and sweep west to try to cut off the American forces, or sweep east and try to cut off the South Korean divisions.

Here's Real Peril

The third possibility is a real peril, but it is unlikely to happen. The American army in Korea today is under orders to save itself no matter how critical the situation becomes. It will withdraw (Please turn to Page Nine)

New Real Estate Appraisal Department To Be Added to County Auditor's Office

A real estate department, with a competent person employed to maintain a continuous appraisal of real estate property in all of Fayette County, is to be added to the office of the county auditor.

This was the decision announced by County Auditor Ullie Acton Saturday following a lengthy conference with officials of the state Department of Taxation.

The object is to avoid errors and inequities that creep into the tax valuations of most all Ohio counties, such as failure to add buildings or other improvements which often are not reported to the county auditor's office.

The duty of this new department will be to raise valuations where inspections of farm or city property indicate that such should be done. Adjustments also can be recommended by this appointee, to the Board of Revision in case a valuation is found too high in comparison with other property of the same type on which valuations have been placed.

More careful and accurate inspection and valuation of property will be the result it is said.

The chief of the county affairs division of the state Tax Department, who was here for the conference, said that whoever is appointed to head the new department as appraiser would be given a special course of training by the state department, if the county so desires.

During the past two years Fayette County property has been reappraised at an expense of approximately $23,000. Under the law of Ohio such a reappraisal (Please turn to Page Nine)

38th Parallel Crossed by UN

Red Counterattack May Cut Off Yanks

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, Tuesday, Feb. 13—(AP)—

Chinese and Korean Reds, combining power with such ruses as white flags and handshakes, rammed a dangerously deep wedge seven miles into allied lines on the Korean central front Monday, isolating some American and South Korean units.

On the east coast a South Korean patrol which had thrust five miles north of the 38th parallel was forced back four miles by a Red counterattack. At last report to U. S. Eighth Army headquarters, however, the South Koreans were still one mile north of the old boundary of North and South Korea.

The savage Red counterdrive in the mountainous central sector was launched Sunday midnight and pushed by an estimated 60,000 troops throughout Monday on a 30-mile-wide front.

Two American units of undisclosed size were reported cut off north of Hoengsong. They were fighting to crack enemy road blocks that extended two miles along the road south of them. An American relief force was battling up from the south. A South Korean regiment also was reported cut off northeast of Hoengsong.

That town is 55 air miles east of Seoul, Red-held former Korean capital.

United Nations troops were massed south of Seoul, just across the Han River from the capital. But a South Korean patrol that had made another probe into Seoul was forced out again late Monday by sharp enemy small-arms fire.

Shortly before midnight Monday, Reds charged south across (Please turn to Page Two)

Price-Wage Plans Meet Opposition

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—Growing dissatisfaction with the progress of the nation's Economic Stabilization program on the part of big segments of organized labor piled up new headaches for price and wage controllers today.

That dissatisfaction, which came out into the open over the week end, seemed destined to play a big but possibly undercover role in the government's efforts to come up a formula for unfreezing most wages.

The Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) which has prime responsibility for devising that formula is reported split three ways and some of its members are said to be discouraged about prospects for an agreement. Three of the nine members represent labor, three industry and three the general public.

The board will meet again tomorrow but its nine members, one official said, are "further apart than they were a month ago." It hopes to issue by the week's end a formula for permitting wage boosts above the current frozen levels of Jan. 23, an acknowledged stop gap.

Signs Labor Unrest

Among the signs of labor unrest with the whole program were these:

Cold Wave End Brings Floods

County Emerging From Snow Blanket

Motorists in Fayette County were getting used to driving on bare streets again today for the first time in several days.

Rain and warmer temperatures teamed up to reduce what was once an 8-inch snow pack to clusters of dirty ice and mushy snow. The mercury Sunday night climbed to 39 degrees, and at 8 o'clock Monday morning it had risen to 40 degrees.

Melting ice and snow poured millions of gallons of water into Paint Creek, but water did not climb over its banks since the run-off was gradual.

Meanwhile, the weatherman was forecasting more rain Monday night and continued warm temperatures.

With this news many residents felt that the worst blows of winter had fallen, and from now on springlike temperatures would prevail. Many of them were crossing their fingers though.

Truck, Bus and 5 Cars All Pile Up in Crash

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Feb. 12—(AP)—The driver of a big semi-trailer ran into a patch of fog on U. S. 40 five miles south of here yesterday and jammed on the brakes.

An automobile crashed into the rear of the trailer. A bus carrying 21 passengers crashed into the wreckage. Fourth other cars then crashed into the pile-up.

Eleven persons were hurt. Six of them were children. But only two persons were hurt seriously. A mother and her baby were thrown from the back seat of one car through the windshield to the pavement. The mother was hurt severely, but she clung tightly to the baby and it suffered only minor cuts.

King of Egypt To Wed Girl

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 12—(AP)—Cairo's society—high and low—streamed last night and today to the home of beautiful 17-year-old Narriman Sadek to celebrate her engagement to Egypt's King Farouk.

The king and the royal family were guests of honor at a glittering reception which also marked the ruler's 31st birthday yesterday.

Though news of the monarch's coming marriage was released to the foreign press Saturday night, Egyptians first read the tidings in their newspapers yesterday morning.

Four Meat Packers Approve Pay Hike

CHICAGO, Feb. 12—(AP)—Three of the nation's four big meat packing companies have agreed to a wage increase of nine cents an hour which is expected to be the pattern for the entire industry.

The agreement, subject to Wage Stabilization Board approval, was reached yesterday between Swift, Armour and Cudahy and the CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America, and between Armour and Swift and the AFL Amalgamated Meatcutters.

Wilson and Company, the fourth big packer, was not included in either agreement.

In accepting the terms, the CIO union authorized its leadership to take strike action if the agreement is not approved by WSB.

Dewey Opposes Sen. Taft's Stand

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has re-entered the "great debate" on foreign policy with an appeal for a larger American land army free to deploy its forces in Europe.

The titular head of the Republican party, twice a presidential candidate, clearly split with some other GOP leaders -- including Senator Robert Taft of Ohio and former President Herbert Hoover -- as he was interviewed yesterday on the National Broadcasting Company's "Meet the Press" television show.

Dewey, in direct variance with Mr. Hoover, said it was "the utmost of folly" to think this country can be defended by air and sea power without large ground forces.

The governor also opposed congressional limitation on the number of American troops sent to Europe, a restriction that Taft advocates along with Republican Senator Kenneth Wherry, of Nebraska.

New Korea Casualties

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—The defense department today identified 79 additional casualties of the war in Korea.

The new casualty list named 26 killed, 32 wounded, 15 missing in action, four injured in accidents and two who died of wounds.

Lausche Boom Is Launched

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12—(AP)—Members of the Ohio Legislature returned for a final spurge of bill-offering in the House today to find a Lausche-For-President drive under way.

Rep. Robert W. Reider (D-Ottawa), weekly newspaper publisher, launched what he termed a one-man campaign to send three-term Gov. Frank J. Lausche to the White House in the 1952 election.

The vehicle was a signed page one editorial in a special "capitol edition" of his Ottawa County News. He printed extra copies for all senators and representatives and said he will send others to every newspaper and radio station in the nation.

Democratic party leaders will receive reprints he said, to focus national attention on "the man best qualified to lead America in this critical and trying period in world history."

Bank Is Robbed By Three Gunmen

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 12—(AP)—Three armed white men robbed the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Granite Quarry, 45 miles northeast of here, of between $35,000 and $40,000 today.

One man covered employees with a pistol in the front part of the bank while his two companions gathered up the currency in a rear compartment. They fled in an automobile.

Correspondent Killed

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Feb. 12—(AP)—Jean Marie De Premonville, 30, war correspondent for the French press agency, was killed today on a patrol with U. S. rangers on the central Korean front.

Blasts, Fires Hit 4 Communities

(By The Associated Press) Explosions and fires caused upwards of $125,000 damage in four Ohio communities over the weekend and injured at least 18 persons. Two of the blasts occurred Saturday night.

One ripped apart a wooden assembly building of Robbins & Myers, Inc., in Springfield, sending 18 persons to the hospital. Thirteen persons still were recovering today from effects of the blast which blew out one wall and collapsed the building's roof.

Damage has been estimated at $5,000 to the building and at least that amount to contents. Those injured were attending a social meeting after working hours.

Firemen are investigating the possibility that a pocket of gas collected under the floor and was ignited accidentally.

The cause of a fire that did at least $50,000 damage to the Union Carbide and Carbon Corp. Bakelite plant near Marietta, O., Saturday, has not been determined. No one was injured. Workmen said they heard a minor explosion and saw flames shoot 70 feet into the air. The fires started near a tank of benzene.

Another fire, cause of which has not been determined, struck the state's mental hospital at Cambridge yesterday, destroying a building where a half dozen doctors and supervisors lived. Supt. Arthur T. Hopwood said the damage would amount to $25,000.

Still another fire last night destroyed a filling station in West Jefferson, 10 miles west of Columbus. Leonard Martin, owner of the (Shell) station on U. S. Route 40, estimated damage might run as high as $50,000. The spectacular blaze was started by an automobile, Martin said.

Dr. Savage To Be Offered Contract As County Health Commissioner

Dr. Gordon Savage, former health commissioner for Greene and Fayette counties, will be offered a contract to return to the position from which he once resigned.

This was brought out following the passing of a resolution authorizing the contract at a joint meeting of the Greene and Fayette County health boards in Xenia Saturday.

Anxiety has been expressed in the search for a health commissioner inasmuch as both counties will lose their state and federal subsidies if a commissioner is not located by July 1, a board member here stated.

Both boards have been searching for a joint health commissioner since they accepted the resignation of Dr. Savage last September. One of the members attending the meeting said that the difficulties between Dr. Savage and the city of Xenia had been straightened out.

The city of Xenia and Greene County do not have a combined board of health, and some difficulty arose last year which was said to be one of the contributing factors for Dr. Savage handing in his resignation.

One of the other factors centers around the village of Fairborn, which according to unofficial sources, has a large enough increase in population to be classed as a city. Under this new classification Fairborn would contribute financially to the county health department.

Dr. Savage is at the present

Woody Hayes In Line for OSU Coach

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12—(AP)—Ohio State University tried—but failed—to pick a football coach today.

A screening committee, the Athletic Board and President Howard L. Bevis agreed unanimously on a choice.

He was reported reliably to be Wayne Woodrow (Woody) Hayes, now coach at Miami University of Oxford, Ohio.

But the Board of Trustees, which has final say, postponed action until next Sunday because three of its seven members were absent.

After a meeting lasting almost three hours the board issued the following statement:

"Because three members of the Board of Trustees have found it impossible to be present at today's meeting, and feeling that a matter of this importance should have the consideration of a larger representation from the board, a special meeting has been called for Sunday afternoon, Feb. 18, 1951, at 4 P. M."

The board was called today to consider a successor to Wesley E. Fesler, who resigned Dec. 9, ending a four-year regime as a coach.

The four trustees were believed deadlocked on a matter of procedure as well as on approving one nominee who had been approved unanimously by the six-man screening committee, the 12-man Athletic Board and President Howard L. Bevis.

4 Dead, 12 Missing Under Avalanches

AIROLO, Switzerland, Feb. 12—(AP)—At least four persons perished and 12 others disappeared today in renewed avalanches in Alpine Europe. Rescue workers have dug 10 other persons from the buried wreckage of their homes.

Hardest hit was southeast Switzerland, where avalanches--started by heavy snow--swamped two villages during the night.

At least four persons were killed by a slide which crashed down on this village at the southern entrance of the St. Gothard tunnel. Six other persons still are buried beneath the snow and feared dead.

Michigan Office Building Fire Started by Teen-aged Father

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 12—(AP)—Michigan's state office building is a charred, icy ruin because a teen-aged father just couldn't face the thought of leaving his wife and baby to go into military service.

Full of remorse over the $4,000,000 fire that burned 45 hours and all but halted operation of the state government, 19-year-old Richard C. Shay is jailed pending a formal arson charge. He is a state highway department employee.

He admitted Saturday night, Prosecutor Paul C. Younger said, that he set the blaze because he thought "a little fire" would get him a probationary sentence and keep him out of the army.

Actually, said draft officials, Shay was in no danger of being inducted, although he had received orders to take a pre-induction physical. His 18-year-old wife, Roberta, and their seven-month-old daughter were ample exemptions, said Chairman Dwight C. Rich of the Ingham County draft board.

GOP Leader Dies

ABERDEEN, Feb. 12—(AP)—John C. Martin, 81-year-old chairman of the Brown County Republican committee, died at his home in Huntington Township farm yesterday. He also was the oldest member of the GOP state committee and had served the longest time on it, being in his 14th term.

Texas Train Wreck

ROSENBERG, Tex., Feb. 12—(AP)—Sixteen persons were injured when a Southern Pacific streamliner crashed into the rear of a 73-car freight train just west of here yesterday.

City Gets Tough On Ice-removal

Notices Served
On Property Owners

Police are beginning to get tough with those who fail to obey notices to clear the ice and snow from the sidewalks about their places of business.

Late Saturday Chief Vaiden Long filed a charge against Glenn Strawn, manager of Isaly's store, corner Court and Fayette streets, for failing to remove snow and ice on the walks.

He was to appear in police court Monday to answer to the charge. Bond of $25 was posted.

Police said five notices had been served on Strawn to remove the snow and ice, and that he failed to heed the notices.

Police said a number of persons had fallen on the ice-covered sidewalks at the Isaly's corner, and that many complaints over a period of several years had been made about the neglected walks at that corner.

Other up-town property owners and tenants also were notified to remove the ice and snow, and complied with the order, police said.

Chief Long indicated that in the future a reasonable time will be allowed (the city ordinance provides 12 hours) after the ice or snow forms before other steps are taken to enforce the city ordinance and insure public safety.

Two Drivers Hurt in Wreck

Mattie McDonald, 40, of near Staunton, was injured severely and Wendel Workman of Washington C. H. was painfully hurt about 6:30 P. M. in a collision of their autos on the Leesburg Road, a miles west of Washington C. H.

Both cars were damaged considerably. McDonald received bad lacerations about his face, and had one wrist injured.

Workman escaped with bruises and a sprained back. McDonald was taken to Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Sheriff Orland Hays investigated the wreck.

Mrs. Julie Mitchell Is Called by Death

Mrs. Julie Mitchell, 76, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wert Pierce, 230 West Elm Street here, at 2:20 P. M. Saturday following six years of failing health. She had been seriously ill for the last four weeks.

A lifelong resident of Bainbridge, Mrs. Mitchell had come here to live with her daughter when her health began to fail.

She was a member of the Methodist Church of Bainbridge. Her husband died two years ago, but she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Pierce and a son, Ernest Mitchell, who also lives here. She also leaves 11 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are to be held at the Smith Funeral Home in Bainbridge at 2 P. M. Tuesday. Interment is to be in the Bainbridge Cemetery.

Friends may call any time at the funeral home.

The first iron works in the new world was built by settlers at Falling Creek, Va., in 1622.

Hampshire Gilts Bring Good Prices

A joint sale of bred registered Hampshire gilts by Andrews & Baughn (Charles Andrews and Roy Baughn) of the Lewis Pike and Paul E. Althoff of Arcanum (Darke County) was described as "very good" with a total of $15,720 being paid for the 72 animals sold at auction.

The sale, held at the Fairground sale pavilion here Saturday, attracted approximately 400 breeders and hog fanciers.

Although most of the gilts went to Ohio breeders as foundation stock for their purebred herds, many went beyond the state's borders. Records showed Monday that animals bought at the sale also went to Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, Wyoming, Kansas and Missouri.

The top gilt, from the A & B herd brought $475 and went to Clint Teagarden of Brookfield Farms near Ashville for a 4-H club project.

Second high price was $450 paid for gilt from the Althoff herd. It went to Bryn Du Farm near Granville.

The top 10 sold averaged $4.50 each; the top 20 averaged $3.29 and the top 30 averaged $2.97 each. Andrews said after the sale: "we were very well satisfied. We thought it was a fine sale and the prices were very good. And, it was an even sale, that is, there was not much of a spread in the prices."

The Golden Rule class of the Bloomingburg Methodist Church served lunch to about 275 at the sale.

Sixty of the gilts offered at the sale were cataloged. A dozen were added, however, by Andrews & Baughn and Althoff. They bought them at sales around here which had been cut down by the recent bad weather.

The cataloged gilts brought an average of $143 each; the others, which were bought by commercial breeders in the community, averaged $143 each.

as greatly improved following major surgery.

Mrs. Dewey Robinson and infant son, Clive Grayson, were taken from Memorial Hospital, Saturday, to their home in Jeffersonville, in the Alvin G. Little ambulance.

Forest Cramblit, was taken from his home, 222 West Elm Street, to Dr. Persinger's office, for X-ray and treatment, Sunday afternoon and returned in the Gerstner ambulance.

Mrs. Robert Bowen and infant daughter, Kathleen Jeanette, were released from Memorial Hospital, Saturday, and taken to their home near Jeffersonville, in the Alvin G. Little ambulance.

Francis L. Garrity of Springfield who suffered a fall on the street near the Fayette Theater, Sunday afternoon, was taken in the Gerstner ambulance, to Memorial Hospital, where he is being treated.

After undergoing an emergency appendectomy in Memorial Hospital a few days ago, Mrs. Maurice Hopkins, has recovered sufficiently and was returned to her home 721 Yeoman Street, Sunday afternoon.

Charles A. Melvin Dies at Home Here

Charles A. Melvin, 71, a prominent figure in Washington C. H. business for many years before failing health sent him into partial retirement, died at 1 A. M. Sunday at his home at 133 1/2 North Main Street.

He started in business with his father, the late Al Melvin in a furniture and stove store in the building where the Halliday Garage now stands. After the store was disposed of, Charles Melvin went into the Taylor Home Appliance store, chiefly in the stove repair department.

He is survived by his widow and a sister, Miss Marie Melvin, the city auditor.

The Eagles Lodge, of which he was a member, is to hold its ritual at the Gerstner Funeral Home at 7:30 P. M. Monday.

Funeral services are to be held at the Gerstner Funeral Home at 2 P. M. Tuesday, with Rev. A. W. Caley, pastor of Grace Church, officiating.

Interment is to be in Washington Cemetery.

At the same time Red artillery subjected the Allies south of the Han to heavy fire from 120-mm guns, presumably Russian-made.

The critical position, however, was on the central front.

Oriental Tricks

At one point on the central front, an American patrol reported Chinese who spoke English came up with white flags, shook hands as if offering to surrender, then cut loose with hand grenades.

American officers were striving desperately to rally the south Koreans.

The Reds were fighting hand-to-hand with Allied defenders in the key road center of Hoengsong. One and a half miles south of Hoengsong, the Communists had set up a road block. A Red column was sweeping toward that area to cut the Hoengsong-Wonju road.

Field dispatches said the situation was confused and serious.

The Communist counter-offensive—a typical maneuver launched at night with massive forces at the weak point—threatened to wipe out the big Allied gains of

On the western front, the Allies had swept Saturday into Seoul's industrial suburb of Yongdungpo, its big airport at Kimpo and Allied divisions massed around Seoul in the west and the south Koreans inside north Korea on the east coast could be forced to pull back for their lives unless the Communist smash in central Korea is stopped.

Seoul Ruins Pounded

Allied artillery and warplanes pounded Red-held Seoul. The fire-blackened city was reported bristling with Communist defenses. Patrols entered the city over the weekend but were forced to withdraw.

Inchon, Seoul's big port 19 air miles to the west, and Yongdungpo, Seoul's industrial suburb, were securely in allied hands. Kimpo, the old capital's big air-

Income Tax Questions

Husbands and Wives

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(P)—Here's some help for married couples in choosing the right form for their 1950 income tax return.

They have two big problems: a joint or separate return; and what form to get the best deductions?

Some of the following points have been mentioned in previous stories but are rounded up here.

There are three forms: form 1040-A (the collector figures your tax for you); the 1040 short form (you find your own tax in the table on page 4); and the 1040 long form (figure your own tax on page 3).

Only people with under $5,000 income can use form 1040-A or the 1040 short form. Those who can't use form 1040-A can use the 1040 long form.

The under $5,000 people can also use the 1040 long form if their deductions are unusually large. But the people with $5,000 or more income have no choice. They must use the 1040 long form.

You can use form 1040-A only if your total income was under $5,000 and all of it—except for no more than $100 in untaxed wages, interest and dividends—was in wages or salary from which full tax was withheld.

If any of your untaxed income was from any other source except those three mentioned -- for instance, if it was from rents-- you couldn't use form 1040-A. You could use the 1040 short form.

Example: Jones had $3,500 income, his wife $1,000. Total, $4,500. All of it, except for $100 in interest, had tax withheld from it. They can file a joint return on form 1040-A. Or, if they wish, on the 1040 short form.

Example: Smith had $3,500 income, his wife $1,000. Total $4,500. All of it except for $101 in interest, had tax withheld from it. They can file a joint return on the 1040 short form, to get the split-income benefit. But they can't file jointly on form 1040-A.

Say that full tax had been withheld from Smith's $3,500 while the $101 in untaxed interest was part of Mrs. Smith's income. He could file separately on the 1040 short form. When they file separately like that they lose the benefit of splitting their income.

As for the 1040 short form -- any married couple who had combined income under $5,000 but for some reason can't use form 1040-A can use the 1040 short form.

Any couple filing on form 1040-A or the 1040 short form get a standard deduction of about 10 percent of their income for personal expenses. They don't have to itemize it or even claim it. They're given it. It's already allowed for in the tax table used in figuring the tax on people using those two forms.

Most people's deductible expenses are actually less than 10 percent of their income. But if yours were really more than 10 percent, you'd lose money by using the 1040 short form or 1040-A.

Instead, use the 1040 long form. There you'll have to go to the trouble, which isn't much, of figuring your own tax. And -- you'll have to itemize every deduction you claim. But you then can claim your deductions in full. That's the only way you can claim them.

But suppose husband and wife had combined income under $5,000. And say one of them had deductible expenses that ran above 10 percent while the other didn't. How do they file?

Chaffin Circle To Give Kids Treats

Members of the Chaffin Community Circle were entertained with a program presented by the school children at their regular monthly meeting last Friday evening at the school building.

Valentine's Day was the theme of the play, which was directed by Mrs. W. J. Hilly and Mrs. Helen Huff.

Following the play, the youngsters sang three patriotic songs: "America," "America The Beautiful" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

A Valentine treat of candy and cookies will be given the school children, it was decided during the business meeting. Mrs. Archie McCullough will be in charge of the arrangements.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

The next meeting, to be held on March 9, will be in charge of Mrs. George Blackmore.

Students Here In OWU Festival

Music Fest Held For 78 Ohio Schools

Twenty-three students at Washington C. H. High School journeyed to Delaware Saturday to take part in the Ohio Wesleyan University annual high school music festival.

They were among several hundred students from 78 Ohio high schools who took part in the festival.

Those from here who sang with the chorus were as follows: Donna Andrews and Mary Huff, sopranos; James Michael, James Moats and Bob Cameron, tenors; Joe Davis, Ann Hire and Milo Weatherly, altos, and John Pensyl, Claude Smith, Glen Milstead, Wendell Braden and Ellis Miller, basses.

Those who played with the band were as follows: Audrey Jean Scholl, clarinet; Nancy Humphries, flute; Dean Wickensimer, saxophone; Bobby Cullen, trombone; Charles Smith, saxophone; Mary McDonald, clarinet; David Crome, trumpet; Rebecca Waters, trombone; Jean Perrill, drums and Steve Brown, trombone.

In all, there were three bands, with about 100 members each. There was an orchestra with between 125 and 150 members and a chorus numbering over 400 persons.

Guest conductors were all termed "outstanding" by William Clift, head of the music department of Washington C. H. High School.

The following were guest conductors: orchestra, John F. Farnacci, instrumental director Cleveland Heights High School; chorus, Thelbert Evans, supervisor of music, Lakewood Public Schools, and Alfred Vorherr, band director, Dover High School.

Youths from here left about 7 A. M. Saturday for Delaware.

Registration was held from 9 A. M. until 10:45 A. M. Rehearsals for the first band to practice started at 12:30 P. M. In the evening a concert was held of the chorus, bands and orchestra in Gray Chapel.

The festival committee, under the leadership of Robert Bowls and Jay Richard Raven, assisted by other members of the music faculty and the two music honoraries, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Mu Phi Epsilon, staged the festival.

Circus Coming Here April 27

Shrine Club Sponsor For Needy Children

The Washington C. H. Shrine Club today had the plans well laid for providing an afternoon and evening of fun and entertainment to make possible a better life for the community's underprivileged children.

Under the sponsorship of the club, the Mills Brothers Circus is coming to town April 27 for afternoon and evening performances.

Announcement of the coming of the three-ring circus under the big top, complete with menagerie and horse show, was made by the club through Max Lawrence.

Negotiations with agents for what he described as the "world's biggest motorized circus" have just been completed, Lawrence said.

The Shrine club spokesman explained that the Mills Brothers Circus, now in its 12th anniversary season also is "the world's largest circus under canvas that plays only under the sponsorship of civic, service and charitable organizations."

Its personnel includes nearly 500 men and women from 18 different countries, Lawrence said. He added that "it comes highly recommended by groups that have presented it as their annual fund-raising project and our contract arrangement gives us an opportunity to raise a considerable sum to help brighten the lives of the community's underprivileged youngsters."

Advance Ticket Sale

Most proceeds for the club's welfare fund will come, Lawrence said, from the advance sale of tickets which will be started soon by Shriners here.

A special campaign, through which needy boys and girls will be able to attend the matinee performance free, also is being outlined.

Lawrence said "Mills Brothers Circus is unique in that it never shows on Sundays and carries its own minister."

The 12th anniversary performance, supported by a full circus band, features imported European sawdustland favorites, plus top American stars; a herd of performing elephants, championship collections of matched dancing and jumping horses, other trained animals, trapeze, tight wire, acrobatic and tumbling artists, three all-girl aerial ballets, wild animal menagerie, and all of the cherished elements of circus tradition.

The circus, which will show here one day only, travels in its own fleet of approximately 100 motorized units and covers 15-17 states annually.

Survey Is Planned For Lustron Plant

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—Contending it got "a brush off" from the Defense Production Authority (DPA), a Senate banking subcommittee prepared today to make a survey of the Lustron Housing plant facilities at Columbus, Ohio, without DPA representation.

The group, headed by Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) was set up to investigate a bitterly disputed DPA order that the plant be converted for naval plane production. It announced last night that DPA declined to join it in an on-the-spot survey scheduled for next Tuesday.

The inquiry stems from protests by a group of Senate and House members that the DPA order was wasteful of both time and money, and that the plant is needed for defense housing production.

Subcommittees Named

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—(AP)—The Rep. James G. Polk (D-Ohio) yesterday was named to three subcommittees of the House agriculture committee. The appointments were announced by committee chairman Cooley (D-N. C.).

War Profiteering Is Nothing New, Archives Reveal

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 —(AP)—George Washington had just licked the Hessians at Trenton, N. J. --and what were Americans worrying about?

Price and wage controls.

The date was Dec. 31, 1776 and a wage-price ceiling law was adopted by the general assembly of the state of Rhode Island and providence plantations.

A copy of the old law was unearthed from the archives of the Brooklyn public library yesterday.

The law denounced "the unbounded avarice of many persons," and said war profiteering "disheartens and disaffects the soldiers who have nobly entered into service" and whose pay "is not sufficient to subsist them."

The price and wage ceilings were set in shillings and pence. Here are some of the "ceilings" of that day in current monetary value:

Milk, nine cents a gallon; rum, 63 cents a gallon; tobacco, five cents a pound; turkeys nine cents a pound.

Wages: for carpenters, 70 cents a day; barbers, 3½ cents a shave; railors, 42 cents a day.

Other items: lodging for a night, five cents; "dinners" at taverns for travelers (not soldiers) of boiled and "roast meat, with other articles equivalent, exclusive of wine," 21 cents.

Soil Is Improved By Crop Switch

DELTA, Utah —(AP)— Heavy alkali soils in Utah are being made more productive by a switch in crops. In the Delta area, soils have poor drainage and the salt content of irrigation water is high. Yields fall off as the salt increases and the ground becomes hard and crusty.

Despite good seeding practices, roots of the important alfalfa crop here become shallow. More frequent irrigation is needed. Some farmers experimented with wheat and found that this plant the tight, salty sub-soils. The roots loosen or break up the ground, permitting better movement of water so that high concentrations of salts can be leached out.

Tall wheatgrass can be grown for seed, pasture or hay. Its decaying roots add organic matter to the soil. Or the plants may be plowed under to further loosen and fertilize the soil. It is reported that wheatgrass will also grow on non-irrigated areas and that near Tooele, Utah, it was used to overcome dust bowl conditions.

Phosphorous and calcium are essential for growth of bones and teeth.

Ohio's Bridges Are Inadequate

9,690 Are Too Weak Survey Discloses

By BILL TERRY

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12—(AP)—One fourth of the state's 9,690 bridges are either too weak or too narrow -- or both -- to serve 1951 traffic adequately, the State Highway Department said today.

Further, because of failing bridges, only three of Ohio's main routes are capable of carrying a full legal load from border to border. The maximum legal load is 78,000 pounds -- or 39 tons.

Only routes 20, 40, and 50 have bridges stout enough to bear this weight, the department says. Other through routes and many secondary roads are restricted by one or more bridges that have been posted for reduced loads.

Warnings Posted

So far the department has posted about 1,000 bridges. It expects the total will rise to 1,500. Highway Director T. J. Kauer gave this formula for posting:

"Bridges are posted when legal loads produce stress in a bridge 50 percent higher than those for which it was designed. The percent reduction shown on the signs indicates that percentage of both axle loads and gross loads which would create a 50 percent over-stress in the members. Bridges posted for reductions of 40 percent or less, while not capable of carrying heavy trucks, will carry such vehicles as school buses. Most of the bridges which require posting were built many years ago, before the advent of motor vehicles, and the primary purpose of posting is to protect the traveling public."

There were 43 complete bridge failures and 109 part failures last year, his records show. The year before there were 36 failures and 116 part failures.

"The highway department is making every effort to repair and replace the most hazardous bridges," Kauer said. "We placed 156 bridges under contract in 1950, at an average cost of $86,000 each, the largest number for any one year in the department's history."

"We feel that considerable progress has been made considering the funds and personnel available."

Three Routes Improved

The three routes clear of weak bridges all are east-west roads. Route 20 runs through Conneaut from Cleveland to Toledo. Route 40, the National Road, bisects the state. Route 50 stretches from Cincinnati to Parkersburg, W. Va.

State Route 3, known as the CCC highway, has a bridge at Seville (Medina County) posted for an 80 percent reduction. The road runs north and south, from Cincinnati through Columbus to Cleveland. State Highway Department engineers are preparing plans for a new bridge at Seville.

The main U. S. routes listed as being restricted by weak, posted bridges:

Route 6 -- 40 percent reduction east of Cleveland; Route 21 -- 45 percent reduction south of Cambridge; Route 22 -- 25 percent reduction at Williamsport (Pickaway County); Route 23 -- 65 percent reduction at Chillicothe; Route 25 -- new bridge being constructed at Piqua, with traffic traveling over temporary span; Route 30 south -- bridge reduced to 10 percent east of Caledonia. Route 30 (north) -- 40 and 45 percent reductions west of Jeannette and one-way traffic restrictions near Lisbon; Route 33 -- 35 percent reduction west of Rockford and 30 percent east of West Alexandria, five and 45 percent east of New Lebanon, and 35 percent northwest of Xenia; Route 42 -- 20 percent reduction at Springfield Village and 40 percent north of Xenia, and Route 52 -- 25 percent reduction halfway between Cincinnati and Indiana state line.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service reports domesticated European geese and swans have lived 70 or 80 years.

College Pranks Show New Twists

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—Long-time observers of the college scene found this year's collegiate football-season pranks just about up to pre-war par.

Texas A. and M. students slipped into at least two stadiums during the season and planted quick-growing grasses in the turf. By game time, a distinct "A. and M." was outlined in a shade of green different from the other grass.

The plan worked fairly well at Memorial stadium in Austin. Before the SMU-Aggie game workmen painstakingly picked up the seed, one by one, before they sprout.

Midwestern University students at Wichita Falls took a page from World War II combatants to protect their campus before a game with North Texas State of Denton. They had scouts out with walkie-talkie radios, and had a radioman in the school tower as lookout.

Basketball Team
Is Complimented
At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Evans of near Atlanta entertained at a three course turkey dinner at their home Sunday evening honoring the Atlanta School basketball team and a few additional guests.

The host and hostess seated their guests at one long table, centered with a miniature basketball court carrying out the school colors of blue and red, flanked with tapers in the same colors.

Places of the honor guests were found cleverly marked with miniature basketball players dressed in replicas of their own suits and each was identified by small cut out photographs of their faces, cleverly used in the making by Mrs. Burke Kearney, who also complimented the coach, cheerleaders, managers and Supt. Warren Hobbie in similar fashion.

Following the congenial dinner the guests found pleasure in informal visiting. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Evans throughout the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Burke Kearney.

The guest list included the players, Roger Fox, Jim Hamman, Ellwyn Hulse, Dale Elliott, Harley Evans, Dick Patterson, Gary Hignam, Howard Houser, Jimmy Le Vally, Briggs Crites, and Tommy Wilkins. Managers Richard Haines, and Ralph Blankenship; cheerleaders, Misses Betty Skinner, Betty Lamb, Opal Gerhardt, Dena and Dawn Puffenbarger, Coach and Mrs. Frederick Gross, Supt. and Mrs. Warren Hobbie and daughter Effie Rose.

Mrs. Chamberlain
Is Hostess at Valentine Party

Mrs. Edith Chamberlain extended the hospitality of her lovely home in Milledgeville to the officers of Royal Chapter Eastern Star and their families for a delightful Valentine party and covered dish Saturday evening. The bountiful meal was served from one long table centered with a heart-shaped cake.

Favors for each guest were clever red gumdrop trees, which carried out the predominating theme.

Preceding the meal Mrs. Charles Hurtt gave the invocation. Later the group assembled in the living room for a song fest, informal visiting and admiring the hostess' antiques who explained their originality.

The guests expressed their appreciation for a lovely evening before departing at a late hour. Those participating in the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurtt, Mr. Ulric Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ferneau, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. John Dial, Mrs. Lucy Panzlau, Miss Minnie Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Travis, Miss Jean Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Mohr, Mrs. Ruth Chaney, Mrs. Marian Stephens and Mrs. Cary Phillips.

LOSES 44 LBS.
Recommends Rennel

"I sincerely recommend Rennel as a safe and effective way to reduce," writes J. E. Lint, 2022 West 13 Pl., Cleveland 13, Ohio. "Since taking Rennel I have lost 44 lbs. I have satisfied myself that nothing can compare with Rennel for taking off excess weight. It's amazing how quickly you can lose unsightly fat at home. Obtain liquid Rennel at your druggist, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If you do not lose weight with the very first bottle just return it for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel."

Cubs Win Junior Cage Title

Tourney Won From Scrappy Jamestowners

Washington C. H.'s junior high cagers copped the crown of the 16-team junior high tournament which finished in the WHS gym Saturday evening.

Second place went to the Atlanta squad which was defeated by the Cubs in the finale, 47 to 36.

Atlanta beat Greenfield McClain's juniors in the opening round of play Saturday afternoon, 27 to 25.

McClain led all the way up to the final two minutes of play when the Atlanta team started marching down the court. McClain had a 7 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter and gave the Atlanta boys only four more points by halftime as they held a 12 to 6 lead.

Atlanta started to break the Greenfield defense in the third quarter as they picked up eight points to trail, 20 to 14. They continued to build up their score until they had tied the game with two minutes to go. With less than a minute left they were able to pull ahead and come out with the two point, 27 to 25, edge to win.

Picklesimer of Atlanta was high scorer for the game with 17 points while Irwin and Pommert were high for McClain with seven counters each.

THE WHS CUBS had an easy time of it in the second game of the afternoon as they trounced Jamestown's juniors, 40 to 25.

The Cubs held Jamestown scoreless in the opening quarter while they collected 11 counters and they went on to gather in 10 more by intermission time to lead 21 to 9.

Jamestown gathered in nine points in the third quarter, but high stepping Cub cagers collected 12 to lead, 33 to 18, as the final frame started. Although the Jamestowners tried, they were unable to gain ground in the fourth quarter and lost, 40 to 25.

Brown and Whitley were high scorers for the Cubs with 15 apiece and Hughes of Jamestown collected 10 for his team.

Cub Cagers Face Finale At Hillsboro

The Cub cagers, proudly sporting the new junior basketball crown they won in Saturday's climax to a 16-team tournament here, today were just a little sad as they prepared for their last game of the season Wednesday afternoon.

The Cubs won the first game here 35 to 23 and are solid favorites in the season's finale.

Coach Fred Pierson, who admits the strategy he teaches the Cubs is simple, is "high" on his boys and makes no secret of it. He'll tell anyone that "they're a great bunch of kids and they can play basketball."

Pierson has said often that the key to his system is "just get that ball and put it through the basket." There is, however, more to it than just that, for the Cubs have made fast and clever ball handling pay off.

Unheralded Bowler Gets Tourney Lead

CHICAGO, Feb. 12 —(AP)—At 3 A. M., Sunday Feb. 4, an unheralded bowler named John Quinzi of East Rochester, N. Y., wearily trudged from the Petersen Tournament after posting an eight-game 1596.

His score, at that time, had taken the lead for Petersen's $8,000 first prize.

"It won't stand up at all," muttered the 29-year-old Quinzi, who owns a bowling alley. "It isn't even a 200 average."

Last night--20 days of competition and 1,952 bowlers after the marathon $48,800 meet started--Quinzi was notified he was the winner of the game's biggest jackpot.

doubtful if the tournament broke even.

Ice roads, cold and snow put such a crimp in the attendance at the first two rounds of play that it was doubtful if the last day's crowd could make it up.

BOTH THE WHS CUBS and the Atlanta teams put everything they had in the final game for the crown, but the Cubs took over decisively in the second half to win, 47 to 36.

Four points separated the two teams at the end of the first frame as the Washington C. H. Cubs led 11 to 7.

Atlanta's juniors were able to cut one point off that margin by

FRED PIERSON, the coach of the Cubs who also served as the tournament manager for the WHS Athletic Association, said Monday that the task of checking the finances had not been completed. Then he added that it appeared

County Cage Tourney To Start in WHS Gym Here Tuesday Night

Basketball mania will reach fever pitch Tuesday night when the four county teams square off in the County Tournament in the Washington C. H. High School gym.

The first game is scheduled to begin at 7:30 P. M. with the Madison Mills and the Bloomingburg starting the single elimination bracket of the junior high tourney.

At 8:30 the Madison Mills team will tangle with Good Hope in the first game of the double elimination varsity bracket.

Bloomingsburg and Jeffersonville will wind up the first evening's varsity games starting at 9:30.

The winners of the two varsity games will play on Thursday evening starting at 9:30 P. M. with the two losers playing at 8:30 the same evening.

The Reserve squads will start their single elimination play at 7:30 P. M. on Thursday evening, with the Madison Mills Reserves going against the Jeff Reserves.

This year a rotation system will be used for the referee-see with Don Bollechino, from Dayton, in charge of the mediators. Assisting him in calling the games will be Robert Colburn, Andre Naudeau, Tom Crauder and John McGee.

The doors open for the games each night at 6:30 P. M., and the admission is 60 cents for adults and 40 cents for students.

Trophies for the winning teams will be presented after the final game on Friday evening Feb. 23.

Lions Play Franklin On Tuesday Night

Tuesday night the Washington C. H. Lions will go to Monroe to play Franklin High School's Wildcats in a game not listed on the regular schedule sheets.

Franklin is rated as having one of the best teams in the state this year. It has won 13 of 16 games this season. It has been beaten by Middletown, Dayton Roosevelt and Hamilton.

Both the varsity and the reserves will see action, with the reserves taking the floor at 7 P. M.

For the fans who want to attend the game and don't know the way, here are the directions to the Monroe gym: first go to Wilmington and take highway 73 to Waynesville, go left on highway 42 to Lebanon and turn right at the fourth traffic light onto highway 63. From there it is eight miles to Monroe where the game is to be played. Franklin has no gym. It is about 50 miles to Monroe from Washington C. H.

Friday night the Lions will know whether they have a tie in the SCO League with Greenfield or are to wind up in second place. They will play the Greenfield Tigers on the WHS court.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK
"First in America" OUR 2nd CENTURY OF SERVICE

Important Announcement To Every Car and Truck Owner in Fayette County!

We have just entered the greatest Parts and Service Sales Contest ever conducted by the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers.

We are pitted against forty-six other Ford dealers in towns of our size.

If our Service Manager and parts men sell more parts and labor than the average dealership this size, the service manager, parts man, and your dealer win a free plane trip to New York City, a weekend at the famous Waldorf-Astoria Hotel with all that goes with such a sight seeing weekend in the World's glamor city.

1300 parts and service managers and dealers will make this trip in one of the largest chartered commercial flights in airplane history, using 30 large Constellations.

More yet, these parts and service managers are eligible to win 165 wonderful prizes, including five new Ford Victoria automobiles, total value approximately $40,000. The four top dealers in each of the twenty groups will receive from 3 to 15 extra cars for their customers.

We here at this, your Ford dealership, all feel that this wonderful weekend trip and all these prizes and new cars are worth putting forth our best efforts to attain.

We also feel that Washington C. H. and Fayette County are quite a bit above the average community with which our dealership will be competing. We therefore are now making our plans to go to New York City June 8-9-10th.

Here's where you the customer comes in. This is a sales contest, not a profit contest. We can win only by doing a huge volume in our shop where we can take care of the motorist's every need, and in our parts department, where you buy genuine Ford parts.

To get this volume our plans call for offering to the motoring public great money saving specials in both service and parts through out the time of this contest which runs from February through April.

There's no hocus-pocus in this deal. You'll be able to see what you are getting and what you are saving. All work and parts are guaranteed.

Watch the pages of this newspaper for these money saving specials.

There will be some that you can use and save money on regardless of the kind of car or truck that you own.

We will appreciate your patronage and make every effort to please you.

River's Rim

by Jane Abbott

Just prior to the War of 1812, pioneer Quint Darby and his wife, Rhoda, settled on the Niagara river across from Canada. Here they prospered and made friends, but socially ambitious Rhoda was unhappy. Her nagging tyranny killed what love there was between them and Quint turned to the hope of ousting merchant ships. He is kept informed as to the Mohawk tribe's activities across the river, by a handsome young half-breed named Peter Brant. Fleeing to Canada, Darby's rich, aristocratic and long-estranged brother Alex, a Tory, and his son, stop at the Darby Tavern. Alex's teen-age daughter Janet is lodged at a local boarding house. Rhoda turns to her social enemy, Janet, and her wife quarrel when their little serving maid, Becky, falls victim to a seduction. Rhoda is all for banishing her out into the wilderness, but Quint stands gallantly by the unfortunate girl, who is rescued by the untimely arrival of the port niece Janet arrives unexpectedly to share the Darby home.

CHAPTER SIX

JENNET'S was the west bedroom, the best sleeping room in the tavern, and brought in the biggest fee. The fees for use of the bunks, built in at one end of the taproom, and the other bedrooms, went into the till but Quint had always given Rhoda the money taken in from this room. He was surprised and pleased that she was putting Jennet in it.

Jennet looked out of the small window. "The river!" she cried. "And is that Canada over there?"

"Yes. That's Canada." Quint saw her brows draw together.

"Your niece may desire to rest after so much journeying," said Rhoda, turning to the door.

"Rest!" laughed Jennet. "No, I want to explore every part of my new home! But first I must change. So if I may be alone for a few minutes... I'll do it quickly."

"I appreciate your kindness to the girl," said Quint to Rhoda, down in the kitchen. "It will be only until her father sends for her—a few weeks at the most."

Rhoda said, musingly, "A few weeks..." Then, "You saw the way the men looked at her?"

Quint had. He had seen Becky standing back of the men, too. He must get Becky over to Mistress Sabrina's.

Voices raised to an excited pitch drew him to the taproom.

"Darby," cried one of the men as Quint approached them. "This fellow here says war with England's as sure as the sun coming up of a morning!"

"Those zany in government've shilly-shallied us into it. A pack o' petticoats..."

"We've as much right on the high seas as the English, ain't we?" countered another.

"Well, let them that live off commerce fight it out! Taint none of our affair!"

"We'll sell em oxen—timber, too. They'll be needing ships."

"I heard that Elliott's for a showdown. Talked the other way but now he's turned about."

Then a virile voice spoke to Quint. "I am William Pettipiece, from New England parts, come to spread the Gospel of the Lord in the wilderness. In the name of the Lord I ask lodging of you the while I'm here."

Quint said instantly, "Our accommodations, such as they are, are at your command." He signalled to Toby. "Take this gentleman to a room." He added, on quick afterthought, "The shed-room." He had built it onto the house the summer before, a sturdy lean-to back of his office. Rhoda had made it comfortable with odds and ends of things. The fellow would be by himself there to meditate and pray, if he were so inclined.

"The ferry's in," called out one of the men, presently, and there was a general move to the door.

From the top of the bank Quint surveyed the load on the ferry. Then he saw the tall youth standing a little apart from the others. The sun glistened on his jet-black head, made brighter the splendid colors of the blanket he wore over his buckskin coat and leggings. Peter! Quint started down the path to greet the lad.

"I'm glad to see you, Peter," said Quint, warmly, offering his hand.

Peter accepted it, but with no answering smile on his face. He said, with a formality that puzzled Quint, "Greetings from my people. To our neighbors."

"You'll stop at the tavern? I'm eager to hear news of you."

Peter hesitated. "For a few moments. I'm on my way to Te-osah-way."

They walked together up the footpath to the tavern. Quint asked, "Where have you been this winter?"

"In England. I've only just returned."

"Pursuing more Latin and Greek and the philosophy, I suppose," laughed Quint, thinking, "That's where he's picked up this new manner."

They reached the tavern, ahead of the others. As they entered Jennet came in from an inner door. She had changed to a frilled silk dress blue as a summer sky. A ribbon bouned a pile of curls on top of her head. At sight of Peter she stopped short and Quint heard the quick breath she drew. He said, "What a lovely dress! The color in her cheeks deepens richly."

Peter had stopped short, too, his eyes on Jennet as hers were on him.

"My niece, Miss Darby, Peter Brant."

Neither of them spoke or moved. Then Peter bowed stiffly, wheeled about and left the room.

"What an exceeding gallant young man!" Jennet's laugh rippled, but Quint caught a tremor of excitement in it. "Had he no tongue in his head, Uncle Quint?"

Quint was aware that all eyes in the room were on Jennet. He took her arm, led her through the door by which she had entered. "I'd prefer you did not appear in the public room, Jennet. Come to the parlor—there are other things I should have spoken to you about."

In the parlor Jennet asked quickly, "What have I done amiss, Uncle Quint? You look so very stern!"

"You've done nothing, my child, that can't be avoided in the future." He softened his tone. "I should have thought to tell you that we're not given to the latest fashions in dress..."

"Oh," cried Jennet, delightedly. "It is this dress? And I was fearful I'd done something very wrong! But, Uncle Quint, this is the oldest thing I possess—truly very unfashionable, now. I'll take it off, at once. I'll never wear it again. I want to do everything as it is done here on the frontier. I know exactly what I shall put on. She started toward the door. "Wait, please, just a few moments." Quint waited, indulgently.

The House committee did not say why an "informal understanding" was reached at a closed door session yesterday to recall Robinson. Robinson appeared voluntarily before the committee Dec. 21 to swear he had never been a Communist or in any way disloyal. The committee subsequently announced he had been "cleared."

A psychologist says that most of us come to accept the fact that life involves taking chances and that we get used to the idea of running into hard luck occasionally. We don't have to like it... but we can adjust ourselves to the knowledge that if it weren't for the rain we wouldn't enjoy the sunshine so much. Nobody has a corner on hard luck... even though it seems that way when the tide's going against us. Without downs there wouldn't be ups... and a life that doesn't vary would be as interesting as a dull thud. No matter what happens today... there's always tomorrow.

Florida weather is as unpredictable as fishing. I got up the other morning and found as big a frost as I ever saw. Had to scrape it off my windshield before I could see to drive. Things are living up plenty. Mickey McCoy came down on the plane the other day. Was he a big shot. He was met by a brigade of grandpapas, Mr. & Mrs. Thane McCoy and the Brandenburgs. That guy has more vim and vigor than seven tom cats. We are taking turn about trying to keep up with him.

Went over to Mt. Dora, a town twenty five miles west and saw a boat regatta Sunday. A very interesting and exciting sport. One boat caught fire, two others upset and one sank. We heard Ot Riegel was coming down, but didn't see him. I'm still doing my utmost to get a big fish, but no luck yet.

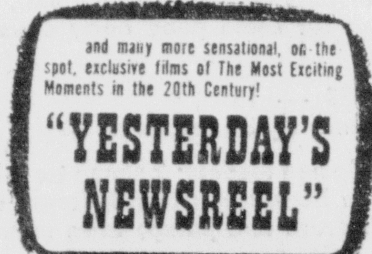

Went to church Sunday morning and they were literally turning people away. Big church too. Rev. Caley please observe that we attended church.

A newspaper headline reads, "We're Not Ready for Disaster, State's Defense Chief Warns." As a matter of fact, no one ever has been... or will be. You can be sure we're ready for rough weather ahead. Yes, sir... we've got the best selection of reconditioned used cars we've ever had. And you can be absolutely sure you'll get the car to take you through safe, sure and satisfactory driving for a long time to come. Pick yours up, and get yourself a good deal at R. BRANDENBURG MOTOR SALES, INC., 524 Clinton Ave. We sell the best and junk the rest. Phone: 2575.

Producers Has Banner Year

$7,762,322 Worth Of Livestock Sold

Producers Stockyards had another banner year last year, it was reported at the annual meeting of association members and their families in Memorial Hall Friday night.

The volume of business transacted during 1950 totaled $7,762,322, or $599,744 above the valuation of all species of livestock sold during 1949.

Helping to push the total valuations to a high peak were the increased number of cattle, hogs and sheep sold. There was a total of 162,063 head of cattle, calves, hogs and sheep sold during the year. There were fewer calves sold than during 1949.

The following number of livestock were sold during 1950: Cattle, 14,047; calves, 3,832; hogs, 102,046 and sheep, 42,138.

Some 350 members of the Producers association and their families enjoyed the program for the evening.

W. H. Nessel, manager of Producers, presented the figures on the business transacted during the year. Short talks were made by W. W. Montgomery, county agent, and L. D. Kingsburg, director of public relations.

Mrs. Viola Armstrong, of the Indiana Farm Bureau cooperative, gave the principal address of the evening on the subject, "Our Privileges." The Indiana speaker told of the many interesting things connected with farm life, stressing especially the woman's duties and responsibilities.

Closing remarks were made by W. E. Sollars, a member of Producers Board of Directors.

The following men were picked to membership to the advisory board: Donald Rife, Green Township; Carroll Rittenour, Jefferson Township; Howard Hopkins, Madison Township; Roy Rankin, Jasper Township; W. E. Sollars, Concord Township; and Harold Har-mount, Greenfield.

Music for the business meeting was furnished by the Greenfield Oetel and the FFA quartet.

Refreshments and dancing followed, with music by the Sunset Rangers.

Mrs. Belle Pavey Dies after Illness

Mrs. Belle McKay Pavey, 79, died at her home in Sabina Saturday at 11 P. M. after two years of illness.

She was born in Fayette County, and had lived in and around the county most of her life. She was a member of the Church of Christ of Sabina.

She is survived by four daughters; Mrs. Irene Langdon, Mrs. Leona Conklin, Mrs. Helen Wilson, all of Sabina, and Mrs. Mary Cooper of Columbus and one son, Dr. William H. Pavey of Xenia also survives.

Funeral services are under the direction of the Littleton Funeral Home of Sabina, and will be held at 2 P. M. Tuesday in the funeral home. Rev. Daniel Mayer of Harper's Ferry will be in charge of the services. He will be assisted by Rev. E. Franklin Gaige of Sabina.

Friends may call at the Pavey home until 11 A. M. Tuesday, when the body will be moved to the funeral home for services. Burial will be made in the family lot in the Sabina Cemetery.

Price-Wage Plans

Charles E. Wilson sought supervision over manpower so he could "impose mandatory controls" on workers.

Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers, said in a speech at Hagerstown, Md., that the government froze prices "in the stratosphere" -- at the highest levels between Dec. 19 and Jan. 25. Reuther pledges support of wage and price regulations, but said the economic controls law contains "loopholes... big enough to drive a truck through."

AFL Vice President George M. Harrison told a reporter his appointment as special assistant to Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston will not satisfy labor's demand for a voice in the highest government economic councils.

Harrison, head of the Brotherhood of Railway clerks, was named Saturday. The move was generally regarded as an attempt to counter labor objections that the stabilization machinery was being taffed almost entirely by industry officials.

Prices May Go On Up

Michael V. DiSalle, the government's price director, said today he expects the general price level to go up another "five or six percent, or even more" before some degree of stability is achieved, probably about midsummer.

"I am in complete disagreement with some of the economists who say that maybe in five months we'll have a three-point rise," DiSalle said. "I think it's going to be higher than that. x x x"

"I'd be tickled to death if by June or July we would begin to see some results of stability. I'm no optimist about what is going to happen."

DiSalle expressed this view in a copyrighted interview with the magazine "U. S. News and World Report."

DiSalle indicated his Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) will move as rapidly as it can to supplant the initial price freeze, at peak levels in the Dec. 19-Jan. 25 period, with specific regulations for each industry.

At present, he said, there is "a very real freeze, but the longer we keep it that way the more some people are going to be hurt by it." He added, however, that the time when most fields can be covered by specific orders is fix or six months away.

He said, as he has before, that he believes the most effective type of price control fair to both business and consumers is one which fixes profit margins. He said he is thinking of allowing each industry to pick its own profit margin, based on some period before the outbreak of the Korean war, and allow it to add that to its costs.

At the same time, he said, he anticipates "some pretty good roll-backs" of prices in particular fields, especially in basic materials.

Hog Sale Average Is $156 a Head

The recent sale of 39 head of bred gilt Duroc hogs, held by Charles A. Miller and Son of the Circleville Road, resulted in an average of $156 per head.

The severe cold weather reduced the crowd mostly to buyers.

The top gilt sold for $230, Carl Cline of Camden was the buyer.

Bidding was spirited and most of the hogs went to buyers in Ohio. One went to the Bingham Farm in New Jersey and one to Thomasville Plantation Farm in Georgia.

Roy Johnson, Decatur, Ind., and Frank Smith, Groveport, were the auctioneers.

The Miller herd has been winning many fair prizes over a period of years, including some at the State Fair.

House Is Damaged On Vine Street

A cottage on Vine Street owned by C. H. Dettly was damaged extensively Saturday at 4:10 P. M. by fire which started from a defective fuse.

Firemen spent more than 45 minutes making certain the fire was all extinguished. Herman Payton occupied the house.

The run was the ninth made so far this year.

The Old Home Town

By Stanley

The supply was being hauled in by milk trucks from Lancaster, 12 miles east. All business establishments in the city which use drinking water have been closed, and bathing and shaving are discouraged.

City officials said "we'd be wiped out by a fire."

The water shortage, they added, is likely to continue indefinitely. The temperature was at thawing levels yesterday but it failed to budge the ice jam.

Residents who could not obtain a supply of drinking water from the shuttling trucks went into rural areas in search of springs and wells where they could quench their thirst.

The rest of the nation generally had a welcome respite from the severe cold weather that had stung it almost continually for days. Temperatures mostly still were above freezing today except in Montana and the Dakotas, where they skidded sharply. Grand Forks, N. D., has 7 below zero, and Cutbank, Mont., 14 below.

Burton Attends Bankers' Meeting

J. Roush Burton of the First National Bank of Washington C. H. and a member of the Council of Administration, Ohio Bankers' Association, was in attendance at the mid-winter meeting of the association, held in Columbus today (Monday).

Burton met with the council Sunday afternoon and was in attendance at the regular association meeting on Monday.

Speakers Monday were to include Branch Rickey, executive vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club, and James E. Shelton, president of the American Bankers Association and president of three days of record rains, while 12,000 residents of Columbia, Pa., scrounged for a meager supply of drinking water.

A state of emergency was declared in both areas.

Governor Langlie of Washington ordered five national guard units to active duty in Washington after some 4,600 persons were flooded out of their homes in the state. In adjoining British Columbia, another 650 persons were homeless and at least five persons had died.

The situation in the northwest was easing, however, as skies cleared and temperatures dropped. The Skagit River in northwestern Washington reached its highest level in many years and forced 1,000 persons from their homes in the Skagit Delta. The Green River, the Snohomish and the Cowlitz all went out of their banks.

River Jammed with Ice

In Columbia, Pa., water was being rationed as a result of an ice jam in the Susquehanna River. The jam caused the river to overflow its banks last Friday night and flood the city waterworks, several industries and 50 homes.

With the waterworks out of commission and the river frozen solidly from bank to bank, each person was placed on a drinking-water ration of one quart a day.

Jerry Spears To Speak Here

Jerry Spears Sr., of Columbus, well known humorist and author, has been engaged as the main speaker for the annual business-men's and farmers' banquet, held in connection with the annual Corn Show, Feb. 22, 23 and 24.

Spears is president of the Ohio Funeral Directors Association and a member of the Columbus Lions Club.

Born on a farm, he spent a great part of his life in Columbus. He is co-author of "Professional Ethics." He will address the farmers and businessmen on the topic "Gold in the Sludge."

The banquet will be held at 6:45 P. M. Feb. 23 at the Masonic Temple. The Eastern Star chapter will serve the meal to the group. It will be paid for this year by the businessmen.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office. All businessmen are invited to take a farmer friend as their guest.

The Corn Show, annual exhibition of handicrafts, grain and other interesting items, will be held in the Armory. The public will be invited.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Cecil Briggs

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 P. M. for Mrs. Cecil Briggs at the Kirkpatrick and Sons Funeral Home of New Holland.

Rev. W. J. McGarity of the New Holland Methodist Church opened the services with a prayer and read the sermon.

Pallbearers for Mrs. Briggs were: D. R. Peterson, John Dick, Harley Mace, Glenn Grimes, Guy Brown and Russell Ebert. Burial was in the family lot in the New Holland Cemetery.
